

Please do not remove translators stations and replace with LPFM. Translators provide good services in small and remote areas that need the resources of large broadcasters where remote areas can provide. LPFM are nice but did not have LPFM take over a current translator. Translators are nice if you need Metro area services from radio but are in a remote area.